A Year To Change Your Life

A 12-Month Inquiry into Your Life, Your Heart, and Your Future Beginning January, 2020 Applications Will Be Accepted Until Spaces Are Filled

This program is designed for mature and motivated participants who want to deepen their understanding of themselves and develop a plan for the future which will reveal and facilitate personal growth and development.

A Year To Change Your Life is:

- A sustained, sincere exploration of who you've been, who you are, and who you wish to be.
- The application of experiences and inquiries designed to cultivate an awareness of who we each really are, who we desire to become, and the development of a plan to make it happen.
- Being part of a like-minded group of people who are likewise committed to the discovery process and meaningful life change.
- Learning techniques and practices that enrich your capacity to be more conscious and alive in your life and relationships.

A Year To Change Your Life is NOT:

- Group therapy (although we will be talking openly & honestly with one another).
- A series of lectures where you passively take in information.
- A course where you will be graded.
- A course heavy in homework & reading.

Your Commitment

Your acceptance into the program assumes you are making this program a priority in your life. This training will require a sincere commitment to the process, and full participation is essential not just for you, but also for the benefit of the other YTCYL attendees. If your attendance drops below 80%, we'll have a conversation about your intention and what you need to stay engaged. If your participation remains low, you may be asked to withdraw. Please carefully consider whether you can make this commitment. If you decide to drop out after the first month, you will still owe the full tuition.

Commitment to the process, and sincerity of heart are the two most important attributes to bring to this experience. If you feel called to take part but are concerned you may be weak in either of these areas, please contact us and we can discuss your concerns.

We are excited about this new course offering. It is the culmination of an idea we first explored in 2009, and have diligently designed and developed since that time. We promise to bring our best to every meeting as well as a strong dedication to helping each participant find his or her path to a better future.

By signing below I hereby commit to participate in this process in accordance with the guidelines presented above:
